October Events Debrief

Aloha! In the wake of October, we can look back at some great moments within our local communities. During October we all had the opportunity to enjoy festivals and activities that were hosted by schools, churches, community leaders and many more. I'm proud to be a part of a community that can work so well together to ensure a fun, safe, and engaging time for all!

Another event that my office had the privilege of participating in is the Character Counts Week. The celebrations kicked off on October 16th and ran through the 22nd. During this week, we can celebrate and embrace the values of character that we share as a universal community. Kids at schools all over the nation celebrate Character Counts week by holding fairs, making signs, and hosting events that reach out to their community. Our very own Mililani High School held a Character Counts Fair to raise awareness of our shared values on campus!

As this season progresses, I look forward to the opportunity for us to get involved in more meaningful activities and come together as a community! As always, please feel free to contact me if you have questions or concerns about happenings in our community. Capitol Tour

I had the amazing opportunity to speak to students from Daniel K. Inouye Elementary School during their visit to our State Capitol about the legislative process.

Mililani YMCA Trunk or Treat

Although not observed as a state holiday, one of Hawaii's most widely celebrated days for kids and families is Halloween. However, amidst all this excitement, many of us aren't aware of how dangerous this night can be for our children. Fortunately, there are several community events that provide a safe alternative to walking door to door, like the Mililani YMCA's Trunk or Treat event this Saturday. Trunk or Treat is where parents and community members park and decorate their cars. This is a safer alternative than walking house to house with traditional trick-or-treating and promotes the strong sense of community we have here in Mililani. My office participates in this wonderful event every year and I am looking forward to this year's event on October 29, from 5:30pm to 8:00pm. Come on down to see what attractions we have this year!

Around the Community

This year's Character Counts Fair was a complete success due to the help of the wonderful Mililani High School Video Game Club (pictured below)! They helped make sure that everyone was having a fun time while conveying the importance of Fairness, this years theme for Character Counts.
