October Events Debrief

Aloha! In the wake of October, we can look back at some great moments within our local communities. During October we all had the opportunity to enjoy festivals and activities that were hosted by schools, churches, community leaders and many more. I'm proud to be a part of a community that can work so well together to ensure a fun, safe, and engaging time for all!

On October 22, I had the amazing opportunity to be a part of Waialua Elementary's Trunk or Treat event. Many parents and community members came to park and decorate their cars in the school parking lot. In addition to the decorated trunks there was also a Haunted House and food for purchase. This was done so we could have a safer alternative to walking house to house with traditional trick-or-treating and it also promoted a strong sense of community here on the North Shore. My office participates in this wonderful event every year and I was excited and honored to be involved again this year!

As this season progresses, I look forward to the opportunity for us to get involved in more meaningful activities and come together as a community! As always, please feel free to contact me if you have questions or concerns about happenings in our community. ## District Agricultural Tour

The Farm Bureau put together a wonderful tour of the agriculture projects in our district including the state's Whitmore Project, the aquaponics farm Mari's Gardens, and a new project in Kunia, Kohana Rum (pictured above) who grow their own sugar cane and have a distillery on property

Waialua Elementary School Trunk or Treat

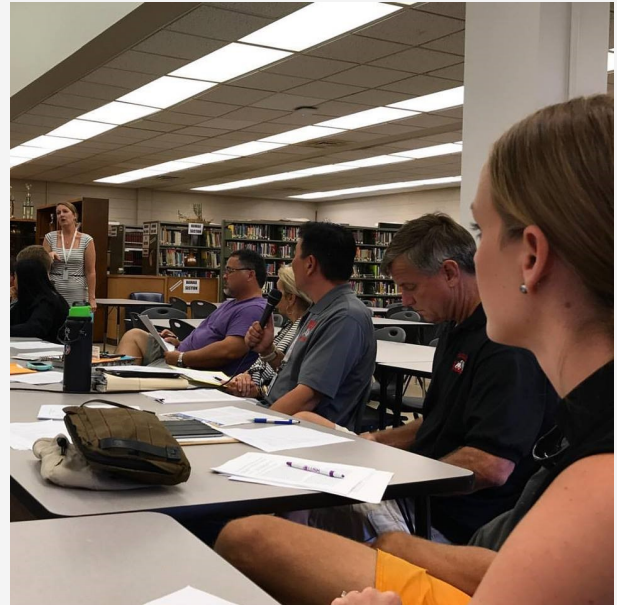

This year's Trunk or Treat was a complete success due to the help of the wonderful senior class of Waialua High School! They made the amazing Nemo and Dory Figures (top left) and helped pass out cotton candy to all of the local children who participated (top right)

Around the Community

I had the amazing opportunity to speak to students from Daniel K. Inouye Elementary School during their visit to our State Capitol about the legislative process.

I was very pleased to attend the SCC meeting at Waialua High and Intermediate school where we discussed improvements to the school and the community.
